PROHIBITIONISTS FIGHT TO ENFORCE DRY ACT

DRY LAWS ARE MORE GENERALLY OBSERVED, STATED

CONVICTION OF VIOLATORS HAVE INCREASED, SAYS REP. G. M. HUDSON

JAIL SENTENCES GAINING IN FAVOR, HE REPORTS TO PROHIBITION CONVENTION

By EDWARD C. DERR (United Press Staff Correspondent) Chicago, Nov. 6.—Prohibitionists are making a winning fight for enforcement of the Volstead act, Representative Grant M. Hudson, Michigan, told the 22nd national convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America here today.

"The prohibition laws are more generally observed than formerly; conviction of violators have increased and jail sentences have been gaining in favor," Hudson declared.

As chairman of the special committee of the 68th congress appointed to investigate traffic in alcoholic liquors Hudson has spent the greater portion of the summer sending out questionnaires to government officials, state officers, prohibition agents, social workers and business leaders. The answers are being tabulated and will be reported to the winter session of congress.

"What I am telling you people today," said Hudson, "is virtually the substance of the official report that will be presented to congress."

"After careful study and investigation we have reached conclusion that the great weakness in the enforcement of the 18th amendment through both federal and state enforcement codes has been the lack of adequate penalties. The system of fines for the major violations of the law has had no deterring effect and operates only as a license law."

Laws should be passed, Hudson said, whereby continual violators should be deported if they are aliens and thrust into penitentiaries if they are American citizens.

"But aside from this weakness, prohibition has been a success," the congressman continued. "Our committee's investigation revealed a great decrease in the consumption of spirituous liquors in the United States since the advent of federal prohibition laws."

"The high peak of consumption was in 1917 when there was drawn from the various liquor warehouses for consumption within the nation 164,291,294 gallons. In a period of seven years ending with 1924, the withdrawal was reduced to 1,813,178 gallons. No basis, however, could be found by our committee for suggestions that there had been smuggled into the country or made synthetically the difference between these figures."

Bishop Thomas Nicholson, president of the League, last night called on the people to rally around the dry standard.

"This liquor evil must be torn up, root, branch and forever destroyed," he cried.

Bishop Nicholson declared the dries needed a few "Carrie Nations" to push the fight.

Brewers aided by European alcohol sellers are planning an anti-dry demonstration in Washington next January, the bishop declared.

F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the league, declared that wets are preparing for a terrific assault on prohibition, with Nevada as the base. Plans are being made to repeal the state dry laws there and then push the fight to all parts of the country.

SUFFERS NERVOUS BREAKDOWN AND DROWNS HERSELF

7 YEAR BROTHER SHOOT 5 YEAR LITTLE SISTER

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Slight hope was held by physicians today for recovery of five year old Mary Sanoft, shot yesterday by her seven year old brother, Peter, "because she called me a monkey."

The child is in a hospital suffering a severe bullet wound in the head, received, the brother told police, when he procured his father's revolver and shot her following a quarrel.

The quarrel resulted from efforts by the boy to take a doll away from his sister, he said. In retaliation the girl hit him with a stick and called him "a monkey," according to his story to police.

FAVOR NATIONAL DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION IN U. S.

WITH ANOTHER SECRETARY IN THE PRESIDENT'S CABINET

ADVOCATED BY 8,000 MINNESOTA PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS IN SESSION

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Establishment of a national department of education with another secretary in the president's cabinet is advocated by Minnesota public school teachers, 8,000 of whom are attending the Minnesota Education Association convention here today.

A resolution advocating the change was adopted at the first assembly meeting yesterday. Other resolutions favored a reasonable effort to codify international law, passage of a state law providing for teachers' insurance and retirement law, change of the school holiday law to make observance optional to local authorities and measures dealing with improvement of facilities for rural schools.

The general assembly at the auditorium in the afternoon was the largest in the history of the association. Fully 8,000 attended. Speakers were Harry Olson, chief justice of the municipal court of Chicago; Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, New York, and J. M. McDonnell, state commissioner of education.

2 MORE ARRESTS IN ALLEGED PLOT TO KILL MUSSOLINI

GEN. GIAMPIETRO AND GUIDO SLATAPER TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

BOTH ARE HOLDERS OF ITALIAN GOLD MEDAL FOR HEROIC SERVICE IN WAR

By THOMAS B. MORGAN (United Press Staff Correspondent) Rome, Nov. 6.—Two more arrests were undertaken today in the alleged plot to kill Premier Mussolini.

General Giampietro and Guido Slataper, both holders of the Italian gold medal for heroic service in the war, were taken into custody and other arrests are expected from within the ranks of the disbanded anti-Fascist organization "Italia Libera."

Former Deputy Tito Zaniboni, General Luigi Capello and Zaniboni's secretary also were held by the police.

The Messagero claims that General Capello, noted in Italian Masonic circles, did the financing of the plot which was started by a small group of anti-Fascist residing in France. On the other hand, Popolo Di Roma traces the source of the funds directly to foreign countries, charging that Zaniboni received 150,000 lire to carry out the alleged plan to shoot down the premier as he spoke on Armistice Day from the Chigi Palace balcony.

Mitchell, Glutton for Calling Witnesses, Now Wants 88

Washington, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Colonel William Mitchell, through his military counsel, today asked the war department for permission to call 12 or 15 witnesses in addition to the list of 73 which he has been authorized to call in his court martial trial on charges of misconduct. The names of the new witnesses will be given out if and after the war department approves the request.

3RD DAY FINDS JURY INCOMPLETE IN BLASER CASE

TRIAL IS AN IMPORTANT TEST CASE OF AN AGE OLD PROBLEM

"IS A PHYSICIAN EVER JUSTIFIED IN SACRIFICING A LIFE?"

The Mercy Murder Up To Date Denver, Colo., Nov. 6.—Dr. Harold F. Blaser admitted to practice medicine in Ohio in 1890.

Migrated to Walsenburg, Colo., few years later, where he became physician for the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company.

Hazel Ingrit, a daughter, born in 1893.

Born normal, but at age of six weeks, had attack of spinal meningitis, which left her a hopeless cripple and an imbecile.

In 1899 Blaser gave up practice of medicine, due to attacks, which he said made him uncertain of ability as a physician. Wife died in 1900.

With imbecile daughter came to Littleton November, 1924, to live with daughter, Frances, and her husband, Roy Bishop.

Tuesday, March 24, 1925, left alone at home of daughter with imbecile.

Frances and her husband returned home 6 P. M. to find Hazel dead and physician with throat slashed.

Found note written by Blaser in which he said he felt he was going to die and did not want to leave his crippled daughter as burden to anyone else.

Coroner's inquest held April 3, 1925.

Blaser named as responsible for girl's death.

Charge first degree murder filed by District Attorney Joel Stone.

At preliminary hearing bound over to district court and released over $10,000 bond.

Brought to trial in district court of Arapahoe county, November 3, 1925.

First and second days' trial given to selecting jury, one chair vacant end second day.

Littleton, Colo., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Divergent philosophies on the taking of human life poured in upon the principals in the murder trial of Dr. Harold Blaser, "mercy murderer," today as persons throughout the country wrote and telegraphed their opinion regarding his compassionate crime.

The chloroforming to death of the doctor's deformed and imbecile 32 year old daughter, "a mere husk of a human," is seen as the result of a mental battle in which attorneys allege to have seen a sense of the humane triumphing over professional ethics.

Littleton and the surrounding countryside is no more stirred than other parts of the nation, where sociologists and physicians view the trial as an important test case of the age old problem, "Is a physician ever justified in sacrificing a human life?"

The third day of the trial dawned with the jury yet incomplete. If the opposing attorneys are unable to select 12 satisfactory jurors, Louis Mowry, chief of the defense counsel, may ask for a change of venue to a Denver court.

Mowry plans a highly technical defense and said he desires "an unusually well informed jury."

DR. BLASER WEAKENING UNDER STRAIN IMPOSED

By STANLEY WHITAKER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Littleton, Colo., Nov. 6.—Slowly and certainly as the panorama of his trial for murder unfolded in the district court of Arapahoe county, Dr. Harold E. Blaser is beginning to weaken under the strain.

The resistance of the 61 year old country doctor, accused of the killing of his imbecile daughter, Hazel Ingrit Blaser, is slowly being beaten down. White creases, unmistakable signs of a gruelling strain, are beginning to line the ordinary florid forehead and radiate from the corners of his eyes.

SECOND JAIL BREAK AT MIAMI PRISON; 13 GO THRU ROOF

Miami, Fla., Nov. 6.—(UP)—In the second jail delivery in six weeks, 13 prisoners smashed through the roof of the Dade county jail here early today and made their escape.

The prisoners tore away the temporary covering of the roof of the jail which had been undergoing repairs and scrambled down the carpenter's scaffold to liberty. In a previous break a few weeks ago two of the prisoners were killed in a gun battle with sheriff's deputies and policemen.

LAKE SUPERIOR THRESHED IN A HEAVY STORM

50 MILE GALE SWEEPS LAKE, ENDANGERING SHIP.

PING MANY STEAMERS SCURRY TO PORTS FOR STORM REFUGE

Duluth, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Lake Superior early today experienced one of the worst storms of the season. The Canadian steamer Harmonic was reported by wireless to be in distress 20 miles west of Caribou Island with its propeller gone and helpless before a 50 mile gale. The steamers Thomason and Paisley were standing by to give aid, according to the messages.

Another message intercepted here said the freighter William Roberts was also adrift with propeller gone near Point Aux Barques, Lake Huron. Most steamers sought ports of refuge before the storm broke and are awaiting a change in weather before again venturing out.

The Harmonic is owned by the Northern Navigation Company and was built in 1909 for passenger service. It has been running between Sarnia, Ont., and Duluth.

Duluth, Nov. 6.—The Canadian steamer Harmonic, reported in distress early today in the worst storm of the season on Lake Superior, is riding at anchor off Caribou Island, C. A. Koge, at the Northern Navigation Company offices here, told the United Press at noon.

The Harmonic's sister ship Huronic is headed up the lake to give any assistance necessary. According to Koge the Harmonic rode out the storm undamaged except for loss of its propeller stripped off by the heavy seas.

Radio messages last night reported the Harmonic, propeller gone, helpless before a 50 mile gale, messages here today said she rode out the storm without the help of the steamers Thomas and Paisley which stood by to give aid in case of emergency.

Most steamers put into port when storm signals were given yesterday and have not ventured out, although the gale is subsiding.

CAR GOES OFF GRADE; DRIVER DROWNS IN DITCH

Benson, Minn., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Chester Amle, 21, Camp Lake township, was drowned in a ditch three miles north of DeGraff when the car in which he was riding toppled off a high grade. Two other occupants of the automobile escaped with only minor injuries. The coating of ice over the ditch sustained them but Amle broke through and drowned before his predicament was discovered.

invalid sister dead and her father with a slashed throat in her home, watched the proceedings from the spectators' section of the court. During a recess she chatted with her father and was apparently trying to give him encouragement.

Interest in the trial centers about the question of whether or not the murder is justified in the cause of mercy.

The defense, no doubt, from questions asked prospective jurors, will base its first attempts to clear the accused man on a plea of temporary insanity.

Bolstering this, they will attempt to bring out that the kindly doctor, who had spent a large part of his life caring for his daughter, did a humane act when he ended her life. They will point out that there was no motive of gain, nor did he merely want to rid himself of a care since he tried to take his own life at the same time.

However, both defense and prosecution attorneys have some points that will not come until the trial gets into motion.

DRY CRUSADERS PAY TRIBUTE TO SLAIN OFFICERS

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD FOR 47 FEDERAL PROHIBITION AGENTS

HONORED AS HEROES EQUAL TO THOSE KILLED ON BATTLE-FIELDS

By EDWARD C. DERR (United Press Staff Correspondent) Chicago, Nov. 6.—Forty-seven prohibition agents, slain in line of duty, were paid solemn tribute this afternoon and their names honored as heroes equal to American soldiers killed on the battle fields.

Approximately 1,500 delegates to the national convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America, bowed their heads in silent prayer in recognition to the "men who have brought to the altar of prohibition the supreme sacrifice in laying down their lives while in the performance of duty as prohibition officers of the United States government."

The services were held in the dimly lighted auditorium of the First Methodist church, in the heart of the loop district. While a great city throbbed with life all about them, these crusaders for temperance secluded themselves and paused in the midst of their busy convention program to honor the "martyrs to prohibition."

Rev. M. P. Boynton, pastor of the Woodlawn Baptist church, Chicago, conducted the service. He read a brief eulogy and then asked the audience to rise while he read the names of 47 prohibition agents.

Then the 1,500 delegates bowed their heads in prayer. The gray walls of the stately auditorium echoed not a sound for a moment until the hush was broken by the tones of the pipe organ, playing a soft dirge.

"The prohibition movement," Dr. Boynton said in his eulogy, "is a challenge to the red blooded young Americans to offer themselves to the United States government for service as soldiers in making regnant, not alone the 18th amendment, but all the provisions of the constitution."

"This service is hazardous. Only the finest fighting blood of America can stand the temptations, plots, threats and diabolical machinations of the illicit liquor manufacturers. These men go out to fight alone. They lack the protection of artillery. They have not the fellowship of closed ranks and marching men. Their enemy is not in the open but in ambush. They face the cowardly rum runners who resort to bombing homes, to deep laid conspiracies, and to the red depths of assassination."

"We stand today in reverent gratitude to the federal prohibition enforcement agents who have been killed while actually on raids from the effective date of the national prohibition amendment."

"Let us each breathe a prayer to their memory and for the wives and children and other relatives who have had their family connections broken."

Then Boynton started reading the names, the audience rising. The names included: William G. Anderson, Mammon, Ill.

William E. Collins, Vinton, La. James T. Williams, Chicago. John Thomas Foley, Minneapolis, Minn.

Seven of the men were killed in accidents, such as automobile collisions, en route to participate in raids. No mention was made of local and state enforcement agents, the service dealing exclusively with federal officers.

SEEK IDENTITY OF AMNESIA SUFFERER

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Identity of a young man suffering from amnesia at a hospital here is sought today by authorities. He was taken into custody early this morning. He remembers neither his name nor home. Money and a watch were found in his pockets but there was nothing to provide a clue to his identity.

LEWISTON, MINN., PUTS ON SAUERKRAUT FETE SUCCESSFULLY

Lewiston, Minn., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Lewiston is recovering today from its first annual sauer kraut festival.

Hundreds of visitors attended the fete. Although figures were not available, the damage to the town's kraut supply was said to be enormous.

A 7-7 football game in the afternoon was a feature of the program. Lewiston and Cotter high schools played. Business men and the American Legion Post sponsored the celebration.

6 OF FAMILY OF 7 LOSE LIVES IN FIRE AT HOME

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Six members of a family of seven lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the home of George Kemp in Balton Spa early today and the surviving member, a 16 year old daughter, is expected to die.

The fire broke out around the chimney, awakening Beatrice, the 16 year old daughter, who, after arousing the family, rushed from the house with her night clothing afire, calling for help.

The charred remains of the other six members of the family, apparently overcome by smoke before the fire caught them, were found huddled together in a room near an exit by firemen, after they had extinguished the blaze.

CONFESSED SLAYER OF BOY TO BE QUESTIONED

MILWAUKEE AUTHORITIES SEND DETECTIVE TO INTERROGATE WM. BRANDT

LATTER SLEW BOY IN ST. PAUL, MAY HAVE COMMITTED OTHER CRIMES

St. Paul, No. 6.—(UP)—The confessed slayer of Francis Pioletti, 11 year old Italian boy, is to be questioned by Albert Kramer, Milwaukee detective, today, in an effort to ground the suspicion he may have killed Arthur Schumacher, Wauwatosa lad, murdered last summer.

William Brandt, arrested soon after the body of the boy was found in a vacant house here, horribly mutilated, confessed the one crime to police. Investigation since has linked him with attack on other small boys.

Similarity of conditions surrounding the two murders led St. Paul police to an investigation of Brandt's whereabouts at the time of the first slaying. Brandt has told police he worked at Milwaukee in June. The boy disappeared in July.

In the St. Paul case the victim's body was found concealed in a remote corner of a dark attic. It might never have come to light, but for information supplied by boy companions. The Schumacher boy's body was hidden in woods near the spot where he disappeared. Both lads had been brutally attacked.

The indictment was returned by the grand jury yesterday on complaint of John A. Johnson, who charged Booth with embezzling $450 from him.

Other charges of embezzlement and forgery are pending against Booth. His defalcations were said to total $40,000.

Booth was an officer of the army during the world war and after the war became the first adjutant of the Duluth American Legion Post.

Daley Heads Veterans

Whitney, Fairbault, vice president; Edward Bardon, St. Paul secretary, and Gus Koeschel, St. Paul, treasurer.

AFFECTS PAYMENT OF THEIR INCOME TAX TO THE GOV'T.

DEMOCRATS INTEND TO SUBMIT A MINORITY REPORT

NO BATTLE IN HOUSE, BUT SENATE MAY BE OF DIFFERENT TEMPER

By PAUL R. MALLON (United Press Staff Correspondent) Washington, Nov. 6.—The compromise tax plan exempting one million persons now paying income taxes from further federal taxation will be adopted by the house without any extended argument, both republican and democratic leaders admitted today.

The democrats intend to submit a minority report urging exemptions up to $5,000, but the project will be only a gesture.

Later there will be a battle in the senate, but until then at least it is the general impression the rates will stand as written late yesterday by the house ways and means committee.

This plan would give exemptions of $1,500 to single men, instead of the present $1,000 and exemptions of $3,500 to married men, instead of $2,500. The normal taxes would be 1 1/2 per cent on the first $4,000, instead of the present 2 1/2; 3 per cent on the next $4,000 instead of 4 per cent and 5 per cent on the balance instead of 6 per cent.

Allowances for dependents would be retained at $400 each.

The scheme goes further than Secretary of the Treasury Mellon suggested to the committee. The reduction provided amounts to more than $200,000,000 a year. Mellon advised reduction of only $140,000,000 on these rates.

The committee today voted to retain the present taxes on corporations and on their capital stock.

Action was taken, however, to relieve small business men by raising the amount considered as earned income from $10,000 to $20,000.

The committee turned down the suggestion of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon to start the surtaxes at a $13,000 income, leaving the surtax applying at $10,000 as at present.

A graduated surtax scale between the one per cent on $10,000 and the 20 per cent maximum, adopted yesterday, will be worked out by a special sub committee appointed today. Starting the surtax at $10,000 will make the total tax reduction only $180,500,000 under the present law, it was said.

This saving, however, is $40,500,000 higher than the figures put forward by Mellon.

FELIX BIFOLKI IS FREE TODAY

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Felix Bifolki, tried for first degree murder, is free today.

First and second days' trial given to selecting jury, one chair vacant end second day.

Littleton, Colo., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Divergent philosophies on the taking of human life poured in upon the principals in the murder trial of Dr. Harold Blaser, "mercy murderer" today as persons throughout the country wrote and telegraphed their opinion regarding his compassionate crime. The chloroforming to death of the doctor's deformed and imbecile 32-year old daughter, "a mere husk of a human," is seen as the result of a mental battle in which attorneys allege to have seen a sense of the humane triumphing over professional ethics.

Littleton and the surrounding countryside is no more stirred than other parts of the nation, where sociologists and physicians view the trial as an important test case of the age old problem, "Is a physician ever justified in sacrificing a human life?"

The third day of the trial dawned with the jury yet incomplete. If the opposing attorneys are unable to select 12 satisfactory jurors, Louis Mowry, chief of the defense counsel, may ask for a change of venue to a Denver court.

Mowry plans a highly technical defense and said he desires "an unusually well informed jury."

DR. BLASER WEAKENING UNDER STRAIN IMPOSED

By STANLEY WHITAKER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Littleton, Colo., Nov. 6.—Slowly and certainly as the panorama of his trial for murder unfolded in the district court of Arapahoe county, Dr. Harold E. Blaser is beginning to weaken under the strain.

The resistance of the 61 year old country doctor, accused of the killing of his imbecile daughter, Hazel Ingrit Blaser, is slowly being beaten down. White creases, unmistakable signs of a gruelling strain, are beginning to line the ordinary florid forehead and radiate from the corners of his eyes.

And yet the trial has hardly started. It will probably be noon today before the jury is complete and the court ready to hear the opening statement of Joel E. Stone, district attorney.

Being a physician, Blaser realized the preparation necessary, if his body and mind were to stand up under the raging court battle. Before the trial he went to the part of the state where he had lived and practiced his profession. There he hunted and fished for several weeks.

Mrs. Frances Bishop, Blaser's daughter, whom the prosecution will ask to tell the story of finding her

SECOND JAIL BREAK AT MIAMI PRISON; 13 GO THRU ROOF

Miami, Fla., Nov. 6.—(UP)—In the second jail delivery in six weeks, 13 prisoners smashed through the roof of the Dade county jail here early today and made their escape.

The prisoners tore away the temporary covering of the roof of the jail which had been undergoing repairs as it scrambled down the carpenter's scaffold to liberty. In a previous break a few weeks ago two of the prisoners were killed in a gun battle with sheriff's deputies and policemen.

LAKE SUPERIOR THRESHED IN A HEAVY STORM

50 MILE GALE SWEEPS LAKE, ENDANGERING SHIP.

MANY STEAMERS SCURRY TO PORTS FOR STORM REFUGE

Duluth, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Lake Superior early today experienced one of the worst storms of the season.

The Canadian steamer Harmonic was reported by wireless to be in distress 20 miles west of Caribou Island with its propeller gone and helpless before a 50 mile gale. The steamers Thomason and Paisley were standing by to give aid, according to the messages.

Another message intercepted here said the freighter William Roberts was also adrift with propeller gone near Point Aux Barques, Lake Huron.

Most steamers sought ports of refuge before the storm broke and are awaiting a change in weather before again venturing out.

The Harmonic is owned by the Northern Navigation Company and was built in 1909 for passenger service. It has been running between Sarnia, Ont., and Duluth.

Duluth, Nov. 6.—The Canadian steamer Harmonic reported in distress early today in the worst storm of the season on Lake Superior, is riding at anchor off Caribou Island, C. A. Koge, at the Northern Navigation Company offices here, told the United Press at noon.

The Harmonic's sister ship Huronic is headed up the lake to give any assistance necessary. According to Koge the Harmonic rode out the storm undamaged except for loss of its propeller stripped off by the heavy seas.

Radio messages last night reported the Harmonic, propeller gone, helpless before a 50 mile gale, messages here today said she rode out the storm without the help of the steamers Thomas and Paisley which stood by to give aid in case of emergency.

Most steamers put into port when storm signals were given yesterday and have not ventured out, although the gale is subsiding.

CAR GOES OFF GRADE; DRIVER DROWNS IN DITCH

Benson, Minn., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Chester Amle, 21, Camp Lake township, was drowned in a ditch three miles north of DeGraff when the car in which he was riding toppled off a high grade. Two other occupants of the automobile escaped with only minor injuries. The coating of ice over the ditch sustained them but Amle broke through and drowned before his predicament was discovered.

Invalid sister dead and her father with a slashed throat in her home, watched the proceedings from the spectators' section of the court. During a recess she chatted with her father and was apparently trying to give him encouragement.

Interest in the trial centers about the question of whether or not the murder is justified in the cause of mercy.

The defense, no doubt, from questions asked prospective jurors, will base its first attempts to clear the accused man on a plea of temporary insanity.

Boistering this, they will attempt to bring out that the kindly doctor, who had spent a large part of his life caring for his daughter, did a humane act when he ended her life. They will point out that there was no motive of gain, nor did he merely want to rid himself of a care since he tried to take his own life at the same time.

However, both defense and prosecution attorneys have some points that will not come until the trial gets into motion.

DRY CRUSADERS PAY TRIBUTE TO SLAIN OFFICERS

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD FOR 47 FEDERAL PROHIBITION AGENTS

HONORED AS HEROES EQUAL TO THOSE KILLED ON BATTLE-FIELDS

By EDWARD C. DERR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, Nov. 6.—Forty-seven prohibition agents, slain in line of duty, were paid solemn tribute this afternoon and their names honored as heroes equal to American soldiers killed on the battle fields.

Approximately 1,500 delegates to the national convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America, bowed their heads in silent prayer in recognition to the "men who have brought to the altar of prohibition the supreme sacrifice in laying down their lives while in the performance of duty as prohibition officers of the United States government."

The services were held in the dimly lighted auditorium of the First Methodist church, in the heart of the loop district. While a great city throbbled with life all about them, these crusaders for temperance secluded themselves and paused in the midst of their busy convention program to honor the "martyrs to prohibition."

Rev. M. P. Boynton, pastor of the Woodlawn Baptist church, Chicago, conducted the service. He read a brief eulogy and then asked the audience to rise while he read the names of 47 prohibition agents.

Then the 1,500 delegates bowed their heads in prayer. The gray walls of the stately auditorium echoed not a sound for a moment until the hush was broken by the tones of the pipe organ, playing a soft dirge.

"The prohibition movement," Dr. Boynton said in his eulogy, "is a challenge to the red blooded young Americans to offer themselves to the United States government for service as soldiers in making regnant, not alone the 18th amendment, but all the provisions of the constitution."

"This service is hazardous. Only the finest fighting blood of America can stand the temptations, plots, threats and diabolical machinations of the illicit liquor manufacturers. These men go out to fight alone. They lack the protection of artillery. They have not the fellowship of closed ranks and marching men. Their enemy is not in the open but in ambush. They face the cowardly rum runners who resort to bombing homes, to deep laid conspiracies, and to the red depths of assassination."

"We stand today in reverent gratitude to the federal prohibition enforcement agents who have been killed while actually on raids from the effective date of the national prohibition amendment."

"Let us each breathe a prayer to their memory and for the wives and children and other relatives who have had their family connections broken."

The Boynton started reading the names, the audience rising.

The names included: William G. Anderson, Mammon, Ill.

William E. Collins, Vinton, La. James T. Williams, Chicago. John Thomas Foley, Minneapolis, Minn.

Seven of the men were killed in accidents, such as automobile collisions, en route to participate in raids. No mention was made of local and state enforcement agents, the service dealing exclusively with federal officers.

SEEK IDENTITY OF AMNESIA SUFFERER

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Identity of a young man suffering from amnesia at a hospital here is sought today by authorities. He was taken into custody early this morning. He remembers neither his name nor home. Money and a watch were found in his pockets but there was nothing to provide a clue to his identity.

LEWISTON, MINN., PUTS ON SAUERKRAUT FETE SUCCESSFULLY

Lewiston, Minn., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Lewiston is recovering today from its first annual sauer kraut festival.

Hundreds of visitors attended the fete. Although figures were not available, the damage to the town's kraut supply was said to be enormous.

A 7-7 football game in the afternoon was a feature of the program. Lewiston and Cotter high schools played. Business men and the American Legion Post sponsored the celebration.

6 OF FAMILY OF 7 LOSE LIVES IN FIRE AT HOME

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Six members of a family of seven lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the home of George Kemp in Balton Spa early today and the surviving member, a 16 year old daughter, is expected to die.

The fire broke out around the chimney, awakening Beatrice, the 16 year old daughter, who, after arousing the family, rushed from the house with her night clothing attire, calling for help.

The charred remains of the other six members of the family, apparently overcome by smoke before the fire caught them, were found huddled together in a room near an exit by firemen, after they had extinguished the blaze.

CONFESSED SLAYER OF BOY TO BE QUESTIONED

MILWAUKEE AUTHORITIES SEND DETECTIVE TO INTERROGATE WM. BRANDT

LATTER SLEW BOY IN ST. PAUL, MAY HAVE COMMITTED OTHER CRIMES

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—(UP)—The confessed slayer of Francis Pioletti, 11 year old Italian boy, is to be questioned by Albert Kramer, Milwaukee detective, today, in an effort to ground the suspicion he may have killed Arthur Schumacher, Wauwatosa lad, murdered last summer.

William Brandt, arrested soon after the body of the boy was found in a vacant house here, horribly mutilated, confessed the one crime to police. Investigation since has linked him with attack on other small boys.

Similarity of conditions surrounding the two murders led St. Paul police to an investigation of Brandt's whereabouts at the time of the first slaying. Brandt has told police he worked at Milwaukee in June. The boy disappeared in July.

In the St. Paul case the victim's body was found concealed in a remote corner of a dark attic. It might never have come to light, but for information supplied by boy companions. The Schumacher boy's body was hidden in woods near the spot where he disappeared. Both lads had been brutally attacked.

FRIGID WAVE IS ANTICIPATED

CHILLED CANADIAN CITIES AND DUE HERE BEFORE NIGHT-FALL

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—(UP)—A frigid wave that chilled Canadian cities yesterday had not reached Minnesota today but was anticipated before tonight by weather forecasters.

The weather bureau at Moorhead, Minn., issued cold warnings late yesterday. A minimum of six degrees below zero was reported from The Pas and Prince Albert, Canada.

Low temperature here yesterday was 28. It was even more moderate today.

REAL ESTATE DEALER CHARGED WITH GRAND LARCENY AT DULUTH

Duluth, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Channing C. Booth, 32, Duluth real estate dealer, was held in default of $5,000 bail here today charged with alleged grand larceny.

The indictment was returned by the grand jury yesterday on complaint of John A. Johnson, who charged Booth with embezzling $450 from him.

Other charges of embezzlement and forgery are pending against Booth. His defalcations were said to total $40,000.

Booth was an officer of the army during the world war and after the war became the first adjutant of the Duluth American Legion Post.

Daley Heads Veterans

Whitney, Faribault, vice president; Edward Bardon, St. Paul secretary, and Gus Koeschel, St. Paul, treasurer.

AFFECTS PAYMENT OF THEIR INCOME TAX TO THE GOV'T.

DEMOCRATS INTEND TO SUBMIT A MINORITY REPORT

NO BATTLE IN HOUSE, BUT SENATE MAY BE OF DIFFERENT TEMPER

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Nov. 6.—The compromise tax plan exempting one million persons now paying income taxes from further federal taxation will be adopted by the house without any extended argument, both republican and democratic leaders admitted today.

The democrats intend to submit a minority report urging exemptions up to $5,000, but the project will be only a gesture.

Later there will be a battle in the senate, but until then at least it is the general impression the rates will stand as written late yesterday by the house ways and means committee.

This plan would give exemptions of $1,500 to single men, instead of the present $1,000 and exemptions of $3,500 to married men, instead of $2,500. The normal taxes would be 1 1/2 per cent on the first $4,000, instead of the present 2 1/4; 3 per cent on the next $4,000 instead of 4 per cent and 5 per cent on the balance instead of 6 per cent.

Allowances for dependents would be retained at $400 each.

The maximum surtax would be 20 per cent.

The scheme goes further than Secretary of the Treasury Mellon suggested to the committee. The reduction provided amounts to more than $200,000,000 a year. Mellon advised reduction of only $140,000,000 on these rates.

The committee today voted to retain the present taxes on corporations and on their capital stock.

Action was taken, however, to relieve small business men by raising the amount considered as earned income from $10,000 to $20,000.

The committee turned down the suggestion of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon to start the surtaxes at a $13,000 income, leaving the surtax applying at $10,000 as at present.

A graduated surtax scale between the one per cent on $10,000 and the 20 per cent maximum, adopted yesterday, will be worked out by a special sub committee appointed today.

Starting the surtax at $10,000 will make the total tax reduction only $180,500,000 under the present law, it was said.

This saving, however, is $40,500,000 higher than the figures put forward by Mellon.

FELIX BIFOLKI IS FREE TODAY

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Felix Bifolki, tried for first degree murder, is free today.

Bifolki was acquitted late yesterday and immediately freed. The defense was based on a plea of self defense.

The accused man stabbed Al Hoffman to death following a party at Lake Owasso, the testimony showed. Both participants in the fight had been drinking.

RHINOW TO TRY AND DRY UP A LEAKY CORNER

CHAPTER XIV

With 'Poleon Doret to be busy was to be contented, and these were busy times for him. His daily routine, with trap and gun, had made of him an early riser and had bred in him a habit of greeting the sun with a song. It was no hardship for him, therefore, to cook his breakfast by candle-light, especially now that the days were growing short. On the morning after his rescue of Sam Kirby and his daughter 'Poleon washed his dishes and cut his wood; then, finding that there was still an hour to spare before the light would be sufficient to run Miles Canon, he lit his pipe and strolled up to the village. The ground was now white for considerable snow had fallen during the night; the day promised to be extremely short and uncomfortable. 'Poleon, however, was impervious to weather of any sort; his good humor was not dampened in the least.

The fellow held the girl for an instant and helped her to regain her equilibrium, exclaiming, with a laugh: "Say! What's the matter with you, sister? Can't you see where you're going?" When Rouletta made no response the man continued in an even friendlier tone. "Well, I can see; your eyesight's good, and it tells me you're about the best-looking dame I've run into tonight." Still laughing, he bent his head as if to catch the girl's answer. "Eh? I don't get you. Who d'you say you're looking for?"

'Poleon was frankly puzzled. He resented this man's tone of easy familiarity and, about to interfere, he was restrained by Rouletta's apparent indifference. What called the girl? It was took dark to make out her face, but her voice, oddly changed and unnatural, gave him cause for wonderment. Could it be—'Poleon's half-formed question was answered by the stranger who cried, in mock reproach: "Naughty! Naughty! You've had a little too much, that's what's the matter with you. Why, you need a guardian." Taking Rouletta by the shoulders, the speaker turned her about so that the dim half-light that filtered through the canvas wall of the tent saloon shone full upon her face.

'Poleon saw now that the girl was indeed not herself; there was a childish, vacuous expression upon her face; she appeared to be dazed and to comprehend little of what the man was saying. This was proved by her blank acceptance of his next insinuating words: "Say, it's lucky I stumbled on to you. I been up all night and so have you. S'pose we get better acquainted. What?"

Rouletta offered no objection to this proposal; the fellow slipped an arm about her and led her away, meanwhile pouring a confidential murmur into her ear. "They had proceeded but a few steps when 'Poleon Doret strode out of the gloom and laid a heavy hand upon the man.

"My Frien," he demanded, brusquely, "were you takin' dis lady?"

"Eh?" The fellow wheeled sharply. "What's the idea? What is she to you?"

"She ain't not'in' to me. But I seen you plenty tams and—you ain't no good."

Rouletta spoke intelligibly for the first time: "I've no place to go—no place to sleep. I'm very—tired." "There you've got it," the girl's self-appointed protector grinned. "Well, I happen to have room for her in my tent." As Doret's fingers sank deeper into his flesh the man's anger rose; he undertook to shake off the unwelcome grasp. "You leggo! You mind your own business."

"Dis goin' be my bizness," 'Poleon announced. "Dere's somethin' fony 'bout dis—"

"Don't get funny with me. I got as much right to her as you have—"

'Poleon jerked the man off his feet then flung him aside as if he were unclean. His voice was hoarse with disgust when he cried: "Get out! Beat it! By Gar! You ain't fit for touch decent gal. You spik wit' her again, I tear you in two piece!"

Turning to Rouletta, he said: "Mam'selle, you lookin' for your pap, eh?"

Miss Kirby was clasping and unclasping her fingers, her face was strained, her response came in a mutter so low that 'Poleon barely caught it:

"Danny's gone—gone—Dad, he's no use fighting it— It's the drink—and there's nothing I can do."

It was 'Poleon's turn to take the girl by the shoulders and wheel her about for a better look at her face. A moment later he led her back into the saloon. She was so oddly obedient, so docile, so unquestioning, that he realized something was greatly amiss. He laid his hand against her flushed cheek and found it to be burning hot, whereupon he hastily consulted the nearest bystanders. They agreed with him that the girl was indeed ill—more than that, she was half delirious.

"Sacre! Wat's she doin' roun' a saloon lak dis?" he indignantly demanded. "How come she's gettin' up biffore daylight, eh?"

It was the bartender who made plain the facts: "She ain't been to bed at all, Frenchy. She's been up all night, ridin' herd on old Sam Kirby. He's drinkin', understand? He tried to get some place for her to stay, along about midnight, but there wasn't any. She's been sittin' there alongside of the stove for the last few hours and I been sort of keepin' an eye on her for Sam's sake."

Doret breathed an oath. "Dat's nice fader she's got! I wish I let 'im drown."

"Oh, he ain't exactly to blame. He's on a bender—like to be killed a feller in here. Somebody'd ought to take care of this girl till he sobers up."

FIRE DEPARTMENT DANCE TONIGHT

Ball Will be a Great Event in Social Circles of the City

AT GARDNER AUDITORIUM

Proceeds to go Into Fund to Send Delegates to State Firemen's Convention

There will be a big time this evening in social circles when one of the attractive dances of the season is staged at Gardner auditorium under the auspices of the Brainerd Fire Department.

The proceeds of this big dance will be used to cover the expenses of sending delegates to the annual firemen's convention to be held this next summer at New Ulm. Brainerd is anxious to make a good showing at this meeting, and to do so means that funds be provided well in advance so that plans can be made accordingly. Duluth will entertain the convention in 1927, and Fergus Falls the following year.

The committee in charge of this evening's dance promises something new and unique in music. The "Rocky Mountain Entertainers" famous orchestra that has been heard innumerable times from KOA radio broadcasting station, Denver, Colorado. These entertainers have made several country-wide tours, and have even played in several foreign countries, gaining thereby a wide reputation. Wherever they have played they have been urged to return and repeat the engagement. It is their first appearance in this section of the state, and an exceptional opportunity to hear one of the famous musical organizations of the country.

The Brainerd Fire Department has maintained an excellent reputation for staging very good dances, and tonight's party will be carried out along the same lines. The best of order will be the rule, and everyone is promised a pleasant evening.

PRAISES BELL RINGERS

Rev. Swaney Nelson of Austin Baptist Church, Chicago, Pleased With Concert

The following comment regarding the Scandinavian Bell Ringers, who appear in a concert Saturday, Nov. 14, at the First Methodist church, under the auspices of the Swedish Bethany church, will be interesting to music lovers of this city: George Ringchrist, Manager for the Scandinavian Bell Ringers, Dear Sir:—

The program given by the Scandinavian Bell Ringers at our church on Friday evening, April 25th, gave to us a treat that we seldom have the pleasure of enjoying. The men in the company were real artists in their profession as bell ringers. It is hard to say which number on the program was best, as every number was so well rendered that it seemed perfect in its rendering as well as harmony.

The bells were soft and melodious in tone and in the hands of these trained ringers every number was a delight.

The character of the men and their provincial costume from the province of Halsingland, Sweden, made their appearance very pleasing.

I count it a real pleasure to speak this word of commendation regarding the appearance of the Bell Ringers in our church.

Very sincerely yours, (Signed) SWANEY NELSON, Pastor of the Austin Swedish Baptist church, Chicago, Ill.

Raymond Griffith and Betty Compson in Fine Crook Comedy at Lyceum

"Paths to Paradise" featuring Betty Compson and Raymond Griffith, now at the Lyceum theatre, opens on the scene of a guide showing a group of sightseers through San Francisco's Chinatown. In an underground dance hall we come across Betty Compson as a fictitious queen of a gang of counterfeiters. She is in the act of "taking over" Ray Griffith, a likely looking sap, according to her pals. Ray calls in a friend, after they have relieved him of several hundred dollars by a couple of clever tricks; the two of them flash stars and declare the place under arrest.

FIRE DEPARTMENT DANCE TONIGHT

Ball Will be a Great Event in Social Circles of the City

AT GARDNER AUDITORIUM

Proceeds to go Into Fund to Send Delegates to State Firemen's Convention

There will be a big time this evening in social circles when one of the attractive dances of the season is staged at Gardner auditorium under the auspices of the Brainerd Fire Department.

The proceeds of this big dance will be used to cover the expenses of sending delegates to the annual firemen's convention to be held this next summer at New Ulm. Brainerd is anxious to make a good showing at this meeting, and to do so means that funds be provided well in advance so that plans can be made accordingly. Duluth will entertain the convention in 1927, and Fergus Falls the following year.

The committee in charge of this evening's dance promises something new and unique in music. The "Rocky Mountain Entertainers" famous orchestra that has been heard innumerable times from KOA radio broadcasting station, Denver, Colorado. These entertainers have made several country-wide tours, and have even played in several foreign countries, gaining thereby a wide reputation. Wherever they have played they have been urged to return and repeat the engagement. It is their first appearance in this section of the state, and an exceptional opportunity to hear one of the famous musical organizations of the country.

The Brainerd Fire Department has maintained an excellent reputation for staging very good dances, and tonight's party will be carried out along the same lines. The best of order will be the rule, and everyone is promised a pleasant evening.

PRAISES BELL RINGERS

Rev. Swaney Nelson of Austin Baptist Church, Chicago, Pleased With Concert

The following comment regarding the Scandinavian Bell Ringers, who appear in a concert Saturday, Nov. 14, at the First Methodist church, under the auspices of the Swedish Bethany church, will be interesting to music lovers of this city:

George Ringchrist, Manager for the Scandinavian Bell Ringers.

Dear Sir:—

The program given by the Scandinavian Bell Ringers at our church on Friday evening, April 25th, gave to us a treat that we seldom have the pleasure of enjoying. The men in the company were real artists in their profession as bell ringers. It is hard to say which number on the program was best, as every number was so well rendered that it seemed perfect in its rendering as well as harmony.

The bells were soft and melodious in tone and in the hands of these trained ringers every number was a delight.

The character of the men and their provincial costume from the province of Helsingland, Sweden, made their appearance very pleasing.

I count it a real pleasure to speak this word of commendation regarding the appearance of the Bell Ringers in our church.

Very sincerely yours, (Signed) SWANEY NELSON, Pastor of the Austin Swedish Baptist church, Chicago, Ill.

Raymond Griffith and Betty Compson in Fine Crook Comedy at Lyceum

"Paths to Paradise," featuring Betty Compson and Raymond Griffith, now at the Lyceum theatre, opens on the scene of a guide showing a group of sightseers through San Francisco's Chinatown. In an underground dance hall we come across Betty Compson as a fictitious queen of a gang of counterfeiters. She is in the act of "taking over" Ray Griffith, a likely looking sap, according to her pals. Ray calls in a friend, after they have relieved him of several hundred dollars by a couple of clever tricks; the two of them flash stars and declare the place under arrest.

THE FARMER BUSINESS MAN

THE Wheat Grower, farm paper published at Grand Forks, N. D., in its November 1 issue shows what the farmer business man must contend with and that he has just as many problems, if not more, than his city cousin, the city business man. Farming can never be a continued success unless it is conducted on business principles.

What makes a good business man? queries the Wheat Grower. Character of course comes first, accompanied by ability and common sense. Yet many who possess these qualities are nevertheless poor business men; others who seem to lack a full development of these qualities are frequently classed as good business men.

But one trait there is which the successful business man never lacks, and that is the ability to successfully read and gauge the future, to estimate with accuracy the future demand, future price, or future supply of the commodity in which he is interested. Most of the profits of business are found to go to the individuals who have successfully prophesied the future.

Some folk there are who have an uncanny knack for this. Some depend on visible signs in their community. Some depend on a close statistical study of their field. Others rely on information relayed to them from some well known economic and statistical foundation.

Sometimes farmers show themselves good business men in reading the future. At other times they do not. Perhaps the greatest cause for this is that they are out of touch with the centers in which the prices for their produce are set, they must rely, save for a limited amount of information concerning their own community, on information from others. The individual farmer, alone and unsupplied with the information which even the lowliest commission firm or elevator company receives, must sell for the major portion of the time on merely a hunch that the high point of the market has arrived.

(We beg to break into the Wheat Grower argument at this point. The radio is giving the farmer the most valuable kind of marketing news. A man equipped with a good radio can get the market quotations as fast as any commission house and if he has any kind of an analytical mind he ought to be able to get the market trend from these daily reports. And then his daily paper gives him important marketing news too. THE DISPATCH runs a whole column daily.)

Farming is of necessity a business today. Perhaps more than ever before is this true at the present time. Today, in order to make any sort of profit, cost of production must be calculated on a narrower margin than ever before. The successful farmer in a financial way must be able to gauge his market.

What chance is there for an individual farmer to do this? Scarcely any, claims the Wheat Grower. But there is the point at which the cooperative association enters the field and performs one of its greatest services. The association, because of its larger scope, is in a better situation to obtain information concerning supply and demand. It has the facilities to obtain information on a world market scale. It has an opportunity, through the orderly distribution of its commodity throughout a yearly marketing scheme, to equalize the values received for the product of its farmer members. Like its fellow members of the business world, it can get information and act upon it logically and sanely.

The farmer is a business man. But he is never as good a business man as when he enters into partnership with his neighbor across the way in an association of mutual interest basis.

WHY NOTRE DAME HAS GREAT TEAMS

NOTRE DAME has great football teams because they have the right kind of spirit at Notre Dame. Coach Rockne uses three or more strings and that makes a lot of men eligible. It keeps all contestants on their toes.

Football is never allowed to interfere with studies. Each in its place, the study hour is as vigorously attacked as the football instruction and football players therefore invariably stand high in their studies.

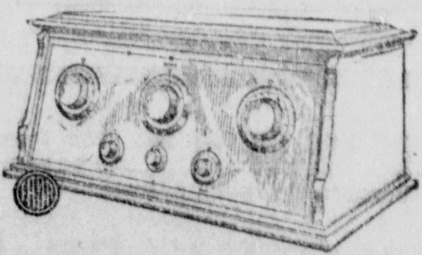

And the spirit of Notre Dame also inspires good sportsmanship. As noted by Henry L. Farrell, great sports editor of the United Press, when the Notre Dame squad returned from the Army game, battered and beaten, the student body turned out and received them like conquering heroes.

There were no alibis, no excuses. The students turned out with the spirit, "Victorious or in defeat, you're our team and we're with you." No wonder they develop good football players at Notre Dame.

Coach Rockne says it does a team good to lose occasionally.

Monday, Nov. 16, Matinee

INTERESTING ENTERTAINMENT

Boys' Program Includes Vocal Selections,
Addresses, Boys Band

Will Play

Word has just reached us that Father Flanagan's boys of Omaha will appear here soon and give an entertainment. We know that this will be good news to many who have been waiting an opportunity of seeing these boys.

Father Flanagan's Home is the only one of its kind in the country, for it is open to all boys regardless of creed, color or nationality.

During the short space of time this home has been operating (about seven years) it has received nearly 2,000 boys from twenty-five different states. Of this number 1,379 boys have been without funds or families. Twenty-four little fellows have been with only a tag on their coats directing them to the Home. Yet these little lads are being developed into young men and made real American citizens.

The boys' program here will be of special interest, for it includes vocal selections by the "Boy Sopranos," as well as addresses by the "Little Boy Orators." There will be choruses and recitations coupled with many unique numbers—all by the boys.

A boys' band will furnish the music.

It is hoped that all the residents of this community will be on hand to welcome the boys and to show their appreciation for the splendid efforts of the juvenile performers. The papers of this state have praised the entertainment most highly, and assure us that it is well worth seeing; and as it is free, there is scarcely an excuse for anyone missing it.

The boys appear at the New Park theatre Monday, Nov. 16, matinee and evening.

3,429 Books Drawn Out, 93 New
Patrons Added to Library's
Records

The Brainerd Public Library was very liberally patronized during the month of October, according to the report of Mrs. Clara T. Jones, librarian, who states that 3,082 persons visited the reading rooms and drew out 3,429 books during that month.

There were 93 new patrons added to the library's records during October, and the shelves were made more complete with 113 new books, in the various departments.

The reading tables are very completely equipped with 43 magazines and two daily newspapers. Patrons, in addition to receiving plenty of good fiction in many of these periodicals, also find all of the important questions of the day discussed pro and con, in addition to the interesting current events that are given in the newspapers. The latest serials by favorite authors, and literary criticisms are also features of the reading tables.

The library management makes the following appeal to residents of the city:

"Are you acquainted with your library? Do you know the work it accomplishes? If not, you are invited to become one of its three thousand patrons."

FORESTRY LAW CHANGES

E. H. Rhodes, Forest Ranger, Refers to Same Effective
July 1st

E. H. Rhodes, forest ranger in the Brainerd district, has handed the Dispatch an excerpt of the forestry laws, containing several important changes.

The ranger points out the fact that the season is near at hand when contractors and settlers will be starting their logging or bolt operations for the winter, and to reduce the fire hazard attending this work, the forest officers have been instructed to rigidly enforce the laws, changes in which became effective July 1st of this year, and which are as follows:

Written reports must be made by registered letter, to the State Forester, Old Capitol Bldg., St. Paul, before any person shall cut or cause to be cut, any timber what-so-ever in the state, whether for logs, bolts, ties or cord-wood, giving name, address, section, township and range (designating forty's) and with a statement as to the products proposed to be cut.

All slash and debris resulting from the cutting of timber, shall be piled in separate compact piles, away from standing timber, ready for burning on a strip 200 feet wide along all adjoining timber-lands, public highways, railroads, portages or lakes, unless ordered to dispose of otherwise by the District Ranger.

RED GRANGE TO SHOW WARES TOMORROW

19 SPECIALS TO RUN TO URBANA FROM CHICAGO

EXTRA BLEACHERS ERECTED FOR ILLINOIS-CHICAGO
GAME

MINNESOTA TAKES ON BUTLER
AT MINNEAPOLIS
TOMORROW

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Although it will have little if any bearing on the Big Ten championship, the Illinois-Chicago game at Urbana tomorrow will draw the biggest crowd and the most interest of any gridiron contest in the middle west.

Red Grange, who hit his real stride in the Pennsylvania game last week, is largely responsible for the widespread interest in the game at Urbana. Fans realize that this is Red's last year of collegiate competition and the season is rapidly drawing toward its close. As many as can get into the huge stadium will be there.

Extra bleachers seating 2,000 spectators have been erected, bringing the total attendance tomorrow to 69,000. Nineteen special trains will be run from Chicago.

Illinois has been beaten by Iowa and Michigan and Chicago was tied by Ohio State, which means that unless Michigan and Iowa are unexpectedly defeated before the end of the season, tomorrow's game at Urbana will not affect first place in the conference standing.

There are three other games tomorrow between Big Ten rivals, two of which will come close to the Illinois-Chicago game in general interest.

Coach Burt Ingwersen's Hawkeyes, with victories over Illinois and Ohio State to their credit, meet Wisconsin at Iowa City. The Badgers have been one of the outstanding disappointments of the season and unless they show marked improvement tomorrow, Iowa's slate should remain clean.

Michigan's powerful scoring machine, one of the greatest teams in the country, will draw a full house to the Grant Park Stadium in Chicago, where they clash with Northwestern's Wildcats. Unless the Wolverines go into the game with too much confidence, they should pile up another good score and increase their string of conference wins to four. Moon Baker may be in the Northwestern backfield but his ankle is still weak and he probably will see only part time service.

Ohio State and Indiana meet at Columbus. Both teams have been defeated but Ohio State has a big eye on the Hoosiers.

The other Big Ten teams meet non-conference opponents, Minnesota taking on Butler at Minneapolis, and Purdue clashing with Franklin at LaFayette.

SCHAEFER NOT TO PLAY ROGER CONTI

Champion of Europe Willing to Rest on Laurels Won in Paris.

Benj. E. Bensinger, president of the Brunswick-Balke-Clender company, is authority for the probability that Roger Conti, champion of Europe, and Jacob Schaefer, champion of the world at 18.2-balkline billiards, will not play a match this year.

"The suggestion of a match between these two foremost billiard players of the world was made by our Paris representative," said he; "but, although Schaefer is willing to go to France to play Conti, the Frenchman is not receptive. He has been sick and says he wishes to rest. Schaefer may go to Paris and play either Felix Grange or Edmond Derbier. However, negotiations which have been conducted by our Paris agent have not accomplished anything definite. It is intimated that Conti wishes to rest on his achievements in the Paris tournament in December—those unfinished runs of 472 and 477 and a grand average of 69.44 in 2,500 points. Perhaps that is the crux of the situation."

Albert G. Cutler says "Conti has great respect for Schaefer. He had it before that tournament in Chicago and it was no doubt increased when Jake beat Erich Hagenlocher 400 to 0, and did not give the German a chance to shoot. That showed Schaefer was in wonderful form. In 1921 Conti traveled with Schaefer and knows his ability. When Schaefer and Conti finished second and third in the 1922 tournament and had to play a qualifying game to determine who should have the right to play Hoppe for the championship, Conti objected to going to Chicago, where the game was played. He said 'I do not want to play Schaefer. I can't beat him.' That his opinion of Schaefer has not changed is indicated by his present attitude."

Polynesian Finger Bowls

The South Sea Islanders used finger bowls a few hundred years before we had a bowl full of water is handed round to every diner in a South Sea house. The water is from the river—pure and fresh.

ALONG THE SIDE LINES

Madison, Wis.—After having smeared Iowa plays all over the field during practices this week, the Badgers are on their way to Iowa City for the Saturday game, confident of winning.

Iowa City, Ia.—Kutsch, due to an injury in scrimmage last night probably will not be able to start Saturday against Wisconsin. Dauber or Kuhel will take his place.

South Bend, Ind.—Thirty-six members of the Notre Dame team are speeding into the fair of Penn State today. Free from over confidence and backed by a hard week's practice, the team is in good shape for the game.

La Fayette, Ind.—Coach Phelan is laying stress on the running attack. The team is already well versed in the art of passing, and this week's practices have been made up mostly of line bucking and running plays.

Bloomington, Ind.—The Hoosiers, 36 strong, are on their way to Columbus for the Ohio game Saturday. Fans here are expecting the light Indiana team to win.

Minneapolis.—After shifting his team and experimenting with new men, Doc Spears has decided to use the same team against Butler Saturday that he used against Wisconsin last Saturday. The week's hard practice has developed some good reserves.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—The Michigan team is on the way to Chicago to meet Northwestern. The line up will be practically the same as that which started against the Navy last week.

Chicago.—Stagg is laboring mightily to teach his defense the art of stopping Red Grange. The team is keyed to a high pitch and the "old man" plans to jump on Illinois right at the start.

Champaign, Ill.—Muegge and Coledge may be in the Illinois line-up against Chicago Saturday in the places of Shively and Mittenwallner. Both the latter are still suffering from injuries received in the Pennsylvania game. Everybody here, from the coach to the waterboys, calls Saturday's game a toss up.

Columbus, O.—The varsity has gone wild against the scrubs in practice this week. Coach Wilce summed up in five words his statement regarding the Indiana game Saturday: "they are ready for Indiana."

Philadelphia.—Chicago and Illinois have places on the Pennsylvania football schedule which is to be presented for the approval of the faculty committee. The Chicago game is booked for November 16 at Philadelphia and the Illinois game November 30 at Urbana. Columbia is back on the schedule for November 13 at Philadelphia.

Milwaukee.—Coach Murray of Marquette cased up a fit on training and sent his golden avalanche through a light signal practice at the Marquette stadium in preparation for the game with the Kansas Aggies on Saturday.

Milwaukee.—Oshkosh normal is a strong favorite to win over the Milwaukee normal eleven in the home coming here today.

FIGHTERS DEMAND BIG PAY AND SET-UPS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 6.—"There are only two fighters in the whole business with whom it is a pleasure to do business," Tex Rickard, major domo of the new $3,000,000 Madison Square Garden, said a few days ago.

"With the exception of Paul Berlenbach and Harry Greb, there isn't a champion or a fighter who is willing to talk any reasonable kind of business. I have been asked many times why I use Berlenbach so much. There seems to be a suspicion that I have a piece of him, but that is not the case.

"I use Berlenbach every chance I get because he is a good drawing card and because he is always ready to sign. I only have to tell him who the opponent is going to be, name the date and the price and the deal is set.

"Greb is the same type of business man because he fears no fighter and likes the game so well that he doesn't consider prices first, last and always.

"I would like to use Greb more than I am able to do, but I can't get opponents for him. The fellows his own weight will not have anything to do with him and the heavier ones want too much money for being shown up by him.

"I've been trying to match Greb and Mickey Walker for a return bout. Walker howled for another chance after Greb had beaten him last summer and Greb told me to name my own terms and he would sign articles. Walker, however, named such impossible terms that I simply couldn't afford to pay him.

"Greb is the drawing card, but Walker figured that he was worth more money than the middleweight champion, and I couldn't see it that way."

With a huge new plant depending partially at least on some revenue from boxing, Rickard planned to make the 1925-1926 indoor season a record breaker. He took only a small part in the past outdoor season, figuring that there were few cards big enough to fill the ball parks and results showed that he was right.

With a capacity of 25,000, he figured that he could offer the fighters attractive purses to work inside this winter, but he has been able to make very few good matches.

"When I opened the Garden I had no trouble arranging cards and I think any of the big boxers at that time will be willing to admit that I wasn't out to make any clean-ups for myself.

"I paid them such good prices, however, that it spoiled them. Even preliminary boys got inflated ideas about their price. Then when the outdoor season came every fighter in the business wanted to work outside. The records will show that ball-park boxing was overdone and many of the fighters wasted a whole year because they were not willing to fight indoors."

MEASURE FOOTBALL GAME BY THE PLAYS INSTEAD OF TIMING

BROWN UNIVERSITY AND BOSTON UNIVERSITY IN RADICAL DEPARTURE

GAME TURNED INTO LABORATORY TEST OF HARRY R. COFFIN'S NEW PLAN

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 6.—Football enthusiasts will put the game through the most interesting experiment tomorrow at Providence that has been tried since the conservatives were forced to accept the forward pass.

Brown University and Boston University have been persuaded by a small group of gridiron radicals to measure their game by the number of plays instead of timing the periods by the tick of a watch.

The principal advocate of the new plan is Harry R. Coffin, a Harvard man from Boston, who failed to interest any of the Big Three coaches. Brown, however, is willing to play anyone and try anything once and Boston officials agreed to turn the game into a laboratory test.

Several prominent members of the rules committee and a number of first ranking coaches, who can get away from their teams, will watch the experiment.

The idea is this:

Each period will be restricted to 40 plays and they are to count consecutively, excepting in cases where a foul has been committed by the defending team, necessitating the imposition of a penalty. For instance, if a play is called back because the defending team was off-side, the play will not count against the team in possession of the ball. If, after four plays, the ball goes to the other side in downs, the play will be No. 5 and the tabulation continued. The same rules will prevail as under the watch system of timing.

At the start of each period the score board will register "20 plays to go," "38," and so forth until 40 plays have been made. The period ends then and the score at that time is recorded.

Advocates of the new system believe, although there are arguments against it, that the game will be speeded up, because there will be no advantage to a team stalling in the late part of the game by throwing forward passes wildly and promiscuously.

Pitcher Coveleskie Is Topic for Baseball Talk

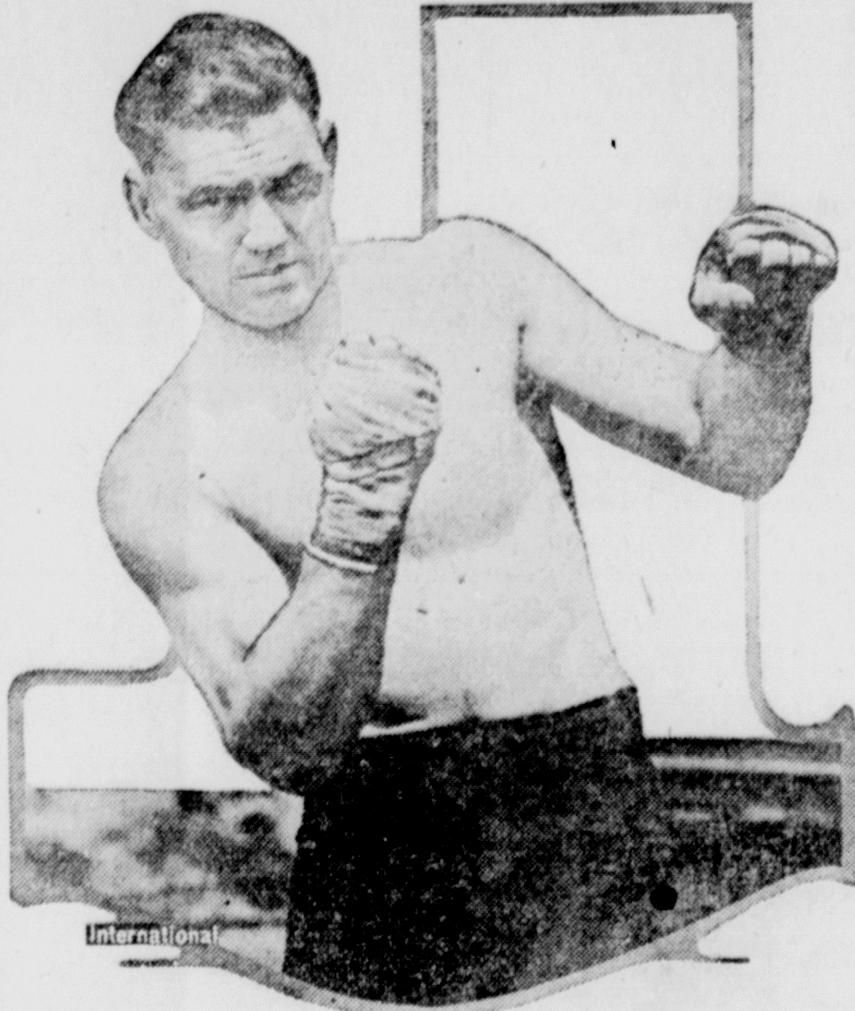

The most talked about pitcher in the American league is Coveleskie, a discard from Cleveland, saved from a drop to the minors by Washington, which has a penchant for taking on old-timers who can't be "seen" by other managers. Tris Speaker won't hear the last of letting Coveleskie go for many a day, and isn't Miller Huggins reminded every so often that he had Al Wingo and cast him out? And didn't John McGraw have Ed Rommel in his training camp a few years back, thinking so little of him he returned him to Newark?

The bulk of players who are doing the best work today are men who have been shifted from one club to another, or to the minors, to be called up again. That goes for all positions, as well as for pitching talent.

RED GRANGE TO SHOW WARES TOMORROW

19 SPECIALS TO RUN TO URBANA FROM CHICAGO

EXTRA BLEACHERS ERECTED FOR ILLINOIS-CHICAGO GAME

MINNESOTA TAKES ON BUTLER AT MINNEAPOLIS TOMORROW

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Although it will have little if any bearing on the Big Ten championship, the Illinois-Chicago game at Urbana tomorrow will draw the biggest crowd and the most interest of any gridiron contest in the middle west.

Red Grange, who hit his real stride in the Pennsylvania game last week, is largely responsible for the widespread interest in the game at Urbana. Fans realize that this is Red's last year of collegiate competition and the season is rapidly drawing toward its close. As many as can get into the huge stadium will be there.

Extra bleachers seating 2,000 spectators have been erected, bringing the total attendance tomorrow to 69,000. Nineteen special trains will be run from Chicago.

Illinois has been beaten by Iowa and Michigan and Chicago was tied by Ohio State, which means that unless Michigan and Iowa are unexpectedly defeated before the end of the season, tomorrow's game at Urbana will not affect first place in the conference standing.

There are three other games tomorrow between Big Ten rivals, two of which will come close to the Illinois-Chicago game in general interest.

Coach Burt Ingwersen's Hawkeyes, with victories over Illinois and Ohio State to their credit, meet Wisconsin at Iowa City. The Badgers have been one of the outstanding disappointments of the season and unless they show marked improvement tomorrow, Iowa's slate should remain clean.

Michigan's powerful scoring machine, one of the greatest teams in the country, will draw a full house to the Grant Park Stadium in Chicago, where they clash with Northwestern's Wildcats. Unless the Wolverines go into the game with too much confidence, they should pile up another good score and increase their string of conference wins to four. Moon Baker may be in the Northwestern backfield but his ankle is still weak and he probably will see only part time service.

Ohio State and Indiana meet at Columbus. Both teams have been defeated but Ohio State has a big eye on the Hoosiers.

The other Big Ten teams meet non-conference opponents, Minnesota taking on Butler at Minneapolis, and Purdue clashing with Franklin at LaFayette.

SCHAEFER NOT TO PLAY ROGER CONTI

Champion of Europe Willing to Rest on Laurels Won in Paris.

Benj. E. Bensinger, president of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender company, is authority for the probability that Roger Conti, champion of Europe, and Jacob Schaefer, champion of the world at 18.2-ballline billiards, will not play a match this year.

"The suggestion of a match between those two foremost billiard players of the world was made by our Paris representative," said he; "but, although Schaefer is willing to go to France to play Conti, the Frenchman is not receptive. He has been sick and says he wishes to rest. Schaefer may go to Paris and play either Felix Grange or Edmond Derbier. However, negotiations which have been conducted by our Paris agent have not accomplished anything definite. It is intimated that Conti wishes to rest on his achievements in the Paris tournament in December—those unfinished runs of 472 and 477 and a grand average of 69.44 in 2,500 points. Perhaps that is the crux of the situation."

Albert G. Cutler says "Conti has great respect for Schaefer. He had it before that tournament in Chicago and it was no doubt increased when Jake beat Erich Hagenlocher 400 to 0, and did not give the German a chance to shoot. That showed Schaefer was in wonderful form. In 1921 Conti traveled with Schaefer and knows his ability. When Schaefer and Conti finished second and third in the 1922 tournament and had to play a qualifying game to determine who should have the right to play Hoppe for the championship, Conti objected to going to Chicago, where the game was played. He said 'I do not want to play Schaefer. I can't beat him.' That his opinion of Schaefer has not changed is indicated by his present attitude."

REPAIRS MADE AT THE SCHOOLS

Building Committee Makes Extended Report at School Board Meeting

NEW ELECTRIC LIGHTS ADDED

Committee Finds it Difficult to Make Efficient Lighting of Exteriors

A number of repairs and improvements have been made at the various school buildings in the city during the past month, according to the report of the building committee, which was submitted to the board of education at its last meeting Monday night.

George Lucas is installing 50 new electric light fixtures, a number in the high school and the balance throughout the other buildings as needed. The committee is finding difficulty in working out a plan for lighting the exterior of the buildings in an effort to prevent loitering there at night. The problem of shutting off these lights at a given time, and protecting the fixtures from breakage is a hard one to solve. Two hollow-pipe light posts, similar to those used in the downtown district, have been ordered from the Water and Light Board, and will be placed on the Washington school grounds. The grade buildings will be taken care of in the best possible manner that the committee can determine.

Vernon White has completed his contract of reshingling the roof of the Harrison school, the work being done in a very satisfactory manner, and the committee recommended the payment of his contract, $562 plus $3 for paint applied on the overlapping part of the decking.

The old shingles on this roof were in very bad condition, the report discloses. The nails were rusted completely off for large spaces and there was nothing holding the shingles to the sheathing. It is expected that the decking will need repairs next season. The report states that it will be necessary to reshingle roofs of other grade buildings soon, as some are beginning to show need of such repairs.

On Friday and Saturday of last week a special representative of the Ven Duprin Lock company was in the city and spent the entire two days going over the locks on the different school buildings. All locks and anti-panic devices are now in very good working order, and with the instructions that were given to the various janitors on the care of these devices, the committee feels that there will be little trouble experienced from this source in the future.

A FINE SPORTS PROGRAM AT LEGION

Carl Sydney Hanson Post Enjoys Itself on Monday Evening

EATS, SMOKES, SIDE DISHES

Every Ex-Service Man, Legion Member or Not, Invited to Festivities

Carl Sydney Hanson Post, American Legion, enjoyed one of the best meetings of the year on Monday night, when in addition to the regular business session the vets witnessed a dandy sports program, eats, smokes, and all the side dishes. And best of all, Fred Sincok, who engineered the festivities, has promised an even more elaborate entertainment for the next meeting, on the first Monday in December.

Every ex-service man, regardless of whether he is a member of the Legion or not, was asked to attend Monday's meeting, and every fellow who could get away on leave was present, not a few admitting that they had come A. W. O. L. The post gave them even more than had been promised, so that it will not be difficult to bring them in again if a similar invitation is extended in the future.

The work of the business meeting was rushed through as rapidly as possible, to give the majority of the evening over to the entertainment committee. The principal business transacted was that of making nominations for officers, to be elected at the December meeting.

Sincok presented a fine sports program. Gilmore, a local boy, won over Doughboy Hopponen, getting the decision in the first fall in 4½ minutes, using the double wristlock. Hopponen hopped right back, however, and took a fall out of Gilmore in 3½ minutes with a scissor-hold. Gilmore upheld the local reputation with a decision in his favor on the third fall, using a headlock, the time being one minute 55 seconds. The boys put up a mighty interesting, clean wrestling match, with plenty of action and, of course, lots of advice from the gallery.

Kotla and P. A. Gilmore went four rounds in a fast bout, Kotla winning the decision. More action and more liberal advice from the grandstand.

The battle royal furnished the big comedy of the evening. The contestants were blindfolded and staged a real treat. George Sweet, local post commander, came out the victor, though some of the boys intimated that he was given the edge on the decision because of his high office and would like to see the fracas repeated after the new commander-in power.

A big feed was served, and the eats committee was given full credit for truthful advertising. The chow was better than anyone could have expected. The battle of appetites waged pretty heavy for a while, but the committee finally came out victorious, the diners surrendering under the heavy barrage of food. Smokes and a social hour followed. The December meeting will be an important one. It is the big annual gathering, with reports on the past year's activities, election of officers and the laying of plans for the coming year's work. Every member of the post is asked to keep this meeting in mind and make a special effort to be present.

Sincok will stage another sports program at the annual meeting, hinting that it will be even better than the one put on Monday night. He has made arrangements to have several fast boxers down from the range as a part of the program. Further announcements concerning the coming meeting will be made later, and the Legionnaires are asked to watch for them.

LOOSEN YOUR PURSE STRINGS

Citizens of Brainerd Asked to Contribute to Disabled Veterans of World War

BUY FORGET-ME-NOTS

Will be Offered For Sale by Ladies Auxiliary of American Legion

Loosened pursestrings will be the rule tomorrow when citizens of Brainerd contribute to the disabled veterans of the World war, by purchasing forget-me-nots which will be offered for sale on the streets of the city beginning at 9 o'clock Saturday morning by the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, assisted by the Girl Scouts.

Nothing can be done for those who sleep in Flanders fields. The crimson poppy of Memorial Day will keep fresh the cherished memory of their supreme sacrifice. But the wearing of the forget-me-not on Armistice Day, next Wednesday, means more than sentimental satisfaction, for it carries with it as well the consciousness that the wearer is performing a concrete service to the disabled veteran who is still among the living and needs help which the purchase of the little blue flowers affords.

There are 4,000 such disabled men in Minnesota alone, 600,000 in the United States, and the work of assisting them will of necessity continue for many years to come, and it is to carry on this work that Forget-me-not Day is observed on November 7th, with the request that the little flowers purchased on that day be worn on Armistice Day as well.

Mrs. Clyde E. Parker is chairman of the special committee to whom is given the responsibility of selling the flowers. Members of the local Legion Auxiliary and the Girl Scouts will be stationed in the downtown district all day tomorrow offering the flowers for sale. No set amount has been placed on the flowers, the contributors being asked to give as much as he or she feels can be afforded. The ladies are giving freely of their time, and it is hoped that the donors will do their share by contributing liberally.

"Purchase forget-me-nots on November 7th to wear on November 11th" is the slogan to be followed not alone in Brainerd, but in every city, town and village throughout the country.

REPAIRS MADE AT THE SCHOOLS

Building Committee Makes Extended Report at School Board Meeting

NEW ELECTRIC LIGHTS ADDED

Committee Finds it Difficult to Make Efficient Lighting of Exteriors

A number of repairs and improvements have been made at the various school buildings in the city during the past month, according to the report of the building committee, which was submitted to the board of education at its last meeting Monday night.

George Lucas is installing 50 new electric light fixtures, a number in the high school and the balance throughout the other buildings as needed. The committee is finding difficulty in working out a plan for lighting the exterior of the buildings in an effort to prevent loitering there at night. The problem of shutting off these lights at a given time, and protecting the fixtures from breakage is a hard one to solve. Two hollowspun light posts, similar to those used in the downtown district, have been ordered from the Water and Light Board, and will be placed on the Washington school grounds. The grade buildings will be taken care of in the best possible manner that the committee can determine.

Vernon White has completed his contract of reshingling the roof of the Harrison school, the work being done in a very satisfactory manner, and the committee recommended the payment of his contract, $562 plus $3 for paint applied on the overlapping part of the decking.

The old shingles on this roof were in very bad condition, the report disclosed. The nails were rusted completely off for large spaces and there was nothing holding the shingles to the sheathing. It is expected that the decking will need repairs next season. The report states that it will be necessary to reshingle roofs of other grade buildings soon, as some are beginning to show need of such repairs.

On Friday and Saturday of last week a special representative of the Veo Dupin Lock company was in the city and spent the entire two days going over the locks on the different school buildings. All locks and anti-panic devices are now in very good working order, and with the instructions that were given to the various janitors on the care of these devices, the committee feels that there will be little trouble experienced from this source in the future.

A FINE SPORTS PROGRAM AT LEGION

Carl Sydney Hanson Post Enjoys Itself on Monday Evening

EATS, SMOKES, SIDE DISHES

Every Ex-Service Man, Legion Member or Not, Invited to Festivities

Carl Sidney Hanson Post, American Legion, enjoyed one of the best meetings of the year on Monday night, when in addition to the regular business session the vets witnessed a dandy sports program, eats, smokes, and all the side dishes. And best of all, Fred Sincok, who engineered the festivities, has promised an even more elaborate entertainment for the next meeting, on the first Monday in December.

MARKET IN UPWARD TREND

New York, Nov. 6.—Prices rushed upward with increasing violence in today's stock market. The public had its appetite for stocks whetted by the recent spectacular gains and commission houses were flooded with orders from every part of the country.

This buying came in competition with accumulation by insiders, whose enthusiasm regarding the trade outlook was further rekindled by the optimistic character of developments in practically every line of business and industry.

Instance of this compound demand was the situation in General Motors, which was carried upward in sensational style by urging buying by banking interests in control which came simultaneously with absorption of large blocks of W. C. Durant and other big shares speculators with the eager demand from the outside public acting on advice that a general distribution was in store for share holders at next week's meeting.

General Motors uprush was followed by Dupont, Fisher Body, General Electric, United States Steel Iron Pipe and other high priced issues.

Steel common continued its more conservative advance, attaining its highest price in history.

With stocks of this calibre stimulating investment stocks in the whole industrial list fairly boiled.

The market closed irregular.

ARRAIGNED ON CHARGE SECOND DEGREE ARSON

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—(UP)—Abraham Rosenzweig, owner of a shop destroyed by fire last month, was to be arraigned in district court here today on a charge of second degree arson.

The indictments against Rosenzweig were returned by the grand jury yesterday. It was part of the campaign against an alleged arson ring.

Similar bills had previously been brought against two other business men. Their fires were mentioned in a confession of Joseph Arver, convicted insurance adjuster, serving a sentence at Stillwater penitentiary for arson.

Faribault, Minn., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Harry Hrabik was indicted on a charge of first degree murder today by the county grand jury. He is accused of murdering Oliver Johnson, September 18.

The killing was one of the most brutal in county history. Johnson was disfigured almost beyond recognition with a heavy wrecking bar. After a fight Hrabik notified county authorities and waited for the sheriff at the scene of the murder.

Ernest Workman was also indicted today for first degree assault in connection with the shooting of Clara Murrehl August 28.

INEQUALITY IN PAYMENT TO SPUD GROWERS IS CHARGED

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Inequality in payments to growers by the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange is charged today in an audit by Garfield W. Brown, state public examiner.

According to the report, growers in the western district of the state were paid $69,759 more for their 1924 crop than they were entitled to receive while $178,715 is still due producers in the eastern district. The central district is short $308.

The differences will be wiped out next year if the exchange functions, according to H. C. Posselt, vice president and acting general manager. Otherwise the assets of the exchange will be liquidated to cover shortages in the central and eastern districts.

To Freshen Wall Paper

An ingenious way to freshen up patterned dingy wall paper is to get about a quart of flat ivory paint such as is used for interiors, and with a sponge daintily to dab the walls. This may be done in the original color of the paper or in a harmonizing tone. In the former case the use of the paint may be quite liberal, but in the latter care must be used not to get too dark an effect nor yet too gaudy a one. This method produces a stippled surface with a soft blur which is distinctly attractive.

With applicator attached to cork, just brush Heet over the pain area, whether in elbows, arms, shoulders, feet, knees, legs, back, neck or body. Besides, "Heet" scatters the congestion and establishes a cure.

"Heet" contains two soothing penetrating ingredients, too expensive to use in ordinary liniments or analgesics. "Heet" is a clean, pleasant liquid; doesn't stain, blister or irritate the skin and costs only 60 cents at any drug store.

PHONE OPERATOR FOILS BANK ROBBERY

Bear Creek, Wis., Nov. 6.—A telephone operator, who notified the village marshal here that wires leading to the switchboard she was operating had been cut, foiled a bank robbery here today. Three men in an automobile had driven into the town and cut the telephone wires and are believed to have planned to rob the Citizens' State Bank here.

Mrs. Emma Roth notified the town marshal and he, together with a quickly formed posse, came on the scene, but the three men had fled, probably having been warned that they had been discovered.

MARKET IN UPWARD TREND

New York, Nov. 6.—Prices rushed upward with increasing violence in today's stock market. The public had its appetite for stocks whetted by the recent spectacular gains and commission houses were flooded with orders from every part of the country.

This buying came in competition with accumulation by insiders, whose enthusiasm regarding the trade outlook was further rekindled by the optimistic character of developments in practically every line of business and industry.

Instance of this compound demand was the situation in General Motors, which was carried upward in sensational style by urging buying by banking interests in control which came into being with absorption of simultaneous blocks of W. C. Durant and other large shares speculators with the eager demand from the outside public acting on advice that a general distribution was in store for share holders at next week's meeting.

General Motors uprush was followed by Dupont, Fisher Body, General Electric, United States Cast Iron Pipe and other high priced issues.

Steel common continued its more conservative advance, attaining its highest price in history.

With stocks of this calibre stimulating investment stocks in the whole industrial list fairly boiled.

The market closed irregular.

The killing was one of the most brutal in county history. Johnson was disfigured almost beyond recognition with a heavy wrecking bar. After a fight Hraluk notified county authorities and waited for the sheriff at the scene of the murder.

Ernest Workman was also indicted today for first degree assault in connection with the shooting of Clara Murrehl August 28.

INEQUALITY IN PAYMENT TO SPUD
GROWERS IS CHARGED

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6.—(UP)—Inequality in payments to growers by the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange is charged today in an audit by Garfield W. Brown, state public examiner.

According to the report, growers in the western district of the state were paid $69,759 more for their 1924 crop than they were entitled to receive while $178,715 is still due producers in the eastern district. The central district is short $308.

The differences will be wiped out next year if the exchange functions, according to H. C. Posselt, vice president and acting general manager. Otherwise the assets of the exchange will be liquidated to cover shortages in the central and eastern districts.
